To help you decide whether you have disability as defined under the Disability Discrimination Act 1995 please read the following information:

A disability is defined as 'a physical or mental impairment, which has a substantial and long-term adverse effect on a person's ability to carry out normal day-to-day activities'.

The effect an impairment may have on day-to-day activities is defined in the Act as falling within the following categories:

- (1) mobility;
- (2) manual dexterity;
- (3) physical co-ordination;

- (5) ability to lift, carry or otherwise move everyday objects;
- (6) speech, hearing or eyesight;
