1. Introduction

The Autumn Term 2020 will see much of BYMT's online instrumental/vocal tuition returning to face-to-face learning. However, we will encourage the use of the following online learning and communication tools to help enhance the progression and musical enjoyment of our students (subject to school approval where required):

- Digital resources, including music and audio tracks
- Virtual learning platforms
- Video meetings with parents and carers, e.g. annual online parent consultations
- Online solo performances
- Online tuition where face-to-face learning in schools is not currently possible
- Online tuition for students where virtual learning better meets their needs

For your reference, please see the BYMT Online Learning Policy

The BYMT risk assessments are written with the following guidance as a reference:

Working safely during coronavirus \(performance arts\)

DfE Schools Re-Opening Guidance

Protective measure for after-school clubs and other out-of-school settings for children during the coronavirus outbreak

Music Mark Guidance

ISM Guidance

DCMS Guidance

BYMT risk assessments are under constant review and we will regularly consult with parents, teachers, schools and specialist organisations.

To ensure that all BYMT stakeholders have the most recent version of our risk assessments we will publish them on our website. All updates will be highlighted in yellow and we will contact schools and parents by email once updated versions have been published.

Schools will have undertaken their own risk assessments. We ask schools to inform any visiting teachers to the school of anything specific to their site beyond the measures detailed below. The BYMT senior leadership team will be visiting BYMT teachers in schools throughout the Autumn Term to review arrangements and provide support for schools. If a school is unable to provide the space and precautions needed, we would ask that we are informed before the teacher's first visit. Please email Covidinfo@bymt.co.uk

The decision to recommence face-to-face in-school tuition should be taken in partnership with schools, BYMT and teachers.

2. BYMT Key Principles During Covid-19 Pandemic

The safety of students and teachers is paramount

- BYMT teachers and their students must be provided with safe and appropriate spaces for face-to-face music tuition to be delivered.
- BYMT will follow and communicate relevant official guidance to parents, teachers and schools.
- BYMT will provide teachers with appropriate training and support.
- BYMT will promptly respond to all concerns or questions raised by parents/carers, teachers or schools. Please email covidinfo@bymt.co.uk

All children must have the opportunity to learn an instrument or sing

- If an appropriate and safe teaching space cannot be found, alternative options must be found to enable children to continue their learning.
- Finance must not be a barrier to learning. BYMT offers financial support for lesson fees through its Young Musician's Bursary. The link to the online form is: <https://ukbromley.speedadmin.dk/registration#/voucher>
- If there are logistical issues preventing a child being taught, BYMT teachers must contact the relevant BYMT head of department so that an alternative option can be arranged.
- If a licensed teacher terminates their contract with a parent/student, BYMT must be informed so that an alternative teacher can be arranged.
- BYMT Heads of Department have created instrumental and vocal video demonstrations which teachers and schools can use to encourage the registration of new students. These videos can be found here In addition, BYMT will be providing schools with opportunities to access performances by Y13 leavers and teachers in the Autumn Term to further inspire and stimulate take up.
- BYMT has launched a new Online Music Academy offering a range of tuition including instrumental and vocal lessons, workshops and theory lessons. Where face-to-face lessons in schools are available, families will first be encouraged to sign-up for tuition through their school. To ensure a smooth transition to face-to-face tuition, BYMT will endeavour to assign the student to a teacher who already teaches at their school. The registration link is <https://ukbromley.speedadmin.dk/registration#/>
- Schools which are full members of the Bromley Music Education Hub can access our online instrumental/vocal tuition student registration system for students through the BYMT website. This system allows parents to sign-up for lessons online and provides a secure GDPR method for managing data. Please ask schools to email sue@bymt.co.uk for further information.

3. BYMT Teacher Code of Practice

1. Please read and familiarise yourself with the BYMT risk assessments sent to schools. If you have any questions relating to these risk assessments, please contact the relevant BYMT head of department or email covidinfo@bymt.co.uk
2. Do not attend school if you suspect that you (or anyone you live with) may be coming down with Coronavirus symptoms: follow the current self-isolation guidance and access a test as soon as possible. If you are at work and you experience coronavirus symptoms go home as soon as safely possible, informing the school that you are working in. Please immediately inform BYMT by emailing covidinfo@bymt.co.uk
3. If you test positive for Corona virus you should follow the current guidance on self-isolating and inform BYMT by emailing covidinfo@bymt.co.uk. Senior Leaders in Schools where you teach should also be informed immediately.
4. If you are classified as clinically extremely vulnerable please inform your school so that a personalised risk assessment can be written. Teachers who are classified as clinically extremely vulnerable should consider not working in schools during lockdown periods.
5. Keep an eye on the school's website, news links, diary and newsletters to anticipate disruptions to your teaching programme.
6. Sign in at the school reception on arrival and immediately clean your hands with water or hand sanitiser before going to your teaching room.
7. Remember that this way of working is as new to school staff and pupils as it is to you. Accept that there will be slips and honest mistakes. Any concerns or questions should be raised with BYMT by contacting covidinfo@bymt.co.uk
8. Prior to teaching ensure you have received the school's risk assessments for COVID-19 and for music teaching; ask about anything you do not understand and abide by the control measures specified. If any of your questions or concerns are not effectively addressed by your school, please email covid19@bymt.co.uk
9. Find out what the school's infection control procedures are; follow them and make use of anything the school provides for your safety.
10. If you think a child may be showing symptoms of Coronavirus, stop the lesson and report your concerns to the school immediately.
11. Teach outside if it is practical and weather permits. You will need to seek prior permission from your school before moving lessons outside.
12. Strictly follow current social distancing guidelines for music tuition as per the risk assessment below. If you can control layout and ventilation in the teaching room, set it up to direct airflow away from both you and the pupil(s) but not at the expense of normal safeguarding or health and safety considerations: e.g. do not move heavy furniture or equipment.
13. If the teaching room does not allow for sufficient distancing and ventilation, explain this to the school. If no reasonable alternative is offered, politely decline to teach that session for the safety of both you and pupils. Please then email covidinfo@bymt.co.uk
14. To help mitigate risk you should wear a face mask or use a clear roller banner screen while you are teaching and moving around the school (of course singing, woodwind and brass teachers will need to remove theirs to demonstrate). If you are an employee of BYMT we will provide you with appropriate PPE.

15. Clean your hands and wrists more often than usual - with running water and soap and dry them thoroughly or use alcohol hand rub or sanitiser ensuring that all parts of the hands are covered.
16. Develop ways to modify your teaching approach to keep a safe distance from children in your lessons as much as possible. If you need support with this, please contact covid@bymt.co.uk
17. Avoid touching pupils' instruments, particularly mouthpieces. Carry disposable gloves and hand sanitiser in case you absolutely have to touch a mouthpiece, e.g. to set a reed or tune a stringed instrument
18. Never play on a pupil's mouthpiece or allow them to play on yours.
19. Stick to the agreed timetable as closely as you reasonably can but be understanding if it has to change at short notice.
20. Limit your contact with other BYMT/school staff members, maintain 2m distancing and don't congregate in shared spaces, especially if they are small rooms.
21. Wash your hands thoroughly before leaving the school.

4. Peripatetic Instrumental and Vocal Tuition

Description of activity

Control Measures

Hazard	Who is at risk?	Control measure(s)	Who is responsible?	Residual Risk Rating at BYMT music centres
Airborne transmission	Students and tutor	Students should not directly face the teacher when playing or singing. Where school policy allows, small group lessons are permitted subject to 2 metre social distancing being possible between students and teacher.	BYMT teacher	4

		Where more than one tutor is using the same room on the same day, enhanced cleaning is put in place between tutor sessions.	School/Music Centre

		Thorough cleaning of teaching spaces at the end of the day.	School/Music Centre
Surface transmission	Students and tutor	Handling of instruments, music stands, practice diaries and related equipment should be limited to pupils only.	BYMT teacher	3
